Revival Meeting.

A series of meetings will begin at the Methodist church on the second Sunday in this month at eleven o'clock. Rev. S. R. Bratcher, pastor of the Methodist Church at Carthage, will do the preaching. Bro. Bratcher is a splendid young preacher, and we look forward with pleasure to the time when we will have the pleasure of hearing him and of working with him for the great cause of Christianity.

This meeting is for the common good of the town, and it is hoped that a gospel will be preached at every service that will be good for everybody. We are glad to know that the time has come when the people do not say that a man is a Christian because he belongs to a certain denomination, but that he is a Christian because he lives right, that is, because he resembles Christ in spirit and in life.

We want to help everybody in this meeting and we want everybody to help us. "All things work together for good to them that love the Lord."

Remember the date, Sept. 12th, and come out at every service. We ought to "lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us" and give at least one week out of fifty-two to the cause of Christianity.

A. R. Gibbons, pastor.

School Opens Sept. 6.

The fall term of the Gainesboro High School will open Monday with a large enrollment. We will have more dope on the subject next week.

Miss Meadows, of Memphis, who has charge of the music department, arrived Saturday and began teaching Monday with a class of 21, with more to come in later on. Miss Meadows has made a splendid record as a music teacher and comes highly recommended.

NOTICE

Having made arrangements to leave Jackson County, October 1st, it becomes necessary for me to announce that after Sept. 15th I will not take any more calls. I should have made this announcement sooner, as it will greatly handicap me to wind up my business in so short a time I have allowed. After Sept. 15th, I will be in my office in Gainesboro from 9 to 11 a. m., and 2 to 4 p. m. each, and all who may desire to see me can do so by calling at my office. All who are indebted me will please call and settle at earliest convenience.

Respectfully,
Dr. C. C. Fowler.
